Motorcycle Riding Instructor

Intro

Klaus Nennewitz has been working as a professional riding-instructor with the GSSS (Guida Sicura Su Strada) motorcycle school in Polcanto, Italy during 2009-2010. GSSS was the first motorcycle school in Italy certified by the Italian Motorcycle Federation FMI with professional instructors for training on public roads.

During the following years and after the relocation to Germany in 2010, Nennewitz has coached young Enduro riders in the German National Enduro Championship from 2010-2014 and is alert ever since to promote a motorcycle-culture based on safety, respect and common sense.

THE EXPERT

Klaus Nennowitz is an all-round talent in the motorcycling world. During the 25 years he has notched up as a development engineer in the international motorcycle industry, he has gained extensive experience in all facets of vehicle development at ATK Motorcycles, Malaguti, Aprilia, Piaggio, Derbi and Ricardo Engineering. He has been fascinated by sports motorcycles since the age of twelve, above all by off-road rallies such as the Dresden-Breslau event (which he once entered on his own purpose-built machine). He has also worked as a driving safety instructor, freelance journalist and tour guide on the side. At the beginning of 2016, he opened his own engineering consultancy for the motorcycling industry. He puts his multilingual talents, globetrotting experience and worldwide network on the scene to good use in his working relations with tour operators Sudestraid (Italy) and TrailRando (France).
